INVOCATION AT CITY COUNCIL, July 11, 1978

God, our Heavenly Father,

We pause at the outset of this City Council session
to acknowledge that you are here, to praise you and to seek your help.

You alone deserve our highest worship.
For you have made us in your image
and you continue to concern yourself with us
in personal, caring ways.

Nothing is too small to be neglected by you.
Nothing is too great to be beyond your wisdom and power
to solve.
It's your love for us in our daily affairs that causes us to be glad, to praise you and turn to you for help.
We would remember the loss sustained by Mayor Amstrong in the death of his father.
Comfort & strengthen the family in this time of sorrow and loss.
So we come to you in behalf of this group of leaders
in our city, grateful that they, too, as you are concerned with us, our living together in this city.

Grant them what they need: understanding, insight, patience,
impartiality, respect for others, courage for right convictions.
Remove from each the desire for self-gain, self-assertion,
and the put down of others.
May they act even as you would act in the issues that will confront them tonight.
Above all may each come to know you personally and better
through a fresh encounter with your Son Jesus Christ who has declared himself and proven to many of us to be "the Way, the Truth and the Life."

It's in his name that this prayer is offered. Amen.
